

GLORY OF CHAOS

HELSTAR

Angels Fall to Hell

(Trevino, Barragan)
(Trevino solos 1 & 2, Barragan solo 3)

Your houses are burning
You'll be the one to bend your knees
Your flock is lost and not returning
Exposed what you hoped no one would see

Pre-Chorus

The innocence you stole was never yours to keep Hell is what sow and Hell is what you'll reap

Chorus

Hidden in your shrines
Where all your secrets dwell
You can't deny the crime
When Angels Fall to Hell

Clutching at your golden chalices.
Disintegrating quickly into dust
In the safety of your empty palaces
The luster of your lies has turned to rust

Pre-Chorus
Chorus

The path you paved has led the lambs astray
Dismembered faith lies rotting and decayed
Gaze upon you with a jaundice eye
Hell awaits your soul when you die

Pre-Chorus
Chorus

Pandemonium

(Barragan, Rivera)
(Trevino solo)

Famine, war, destruction almost pleasant to the view
Natural catastrophes, so tell me what is new
The picture you are painting says doomsday's on rise
A Glimpse of apocalypse, all we see in our eyes

Chorus

You are pandemonium
You are the madness that lives in our minds
You are pandemonium
You are the sadness that's keeping us blind

Selling only fear and the rise of discontent
Assassination of truth, monocracy turned violent
Enabler, instigator, the bringer of all grief
Blessed are the horrors the panic on which we feed

Chorus

Only negative deception, corruption, lunacy
A system failed surrounds us, collapse of society
Anarchy, nihilism, the worse is yet to come
Lawlessness, disorder, to frantic news succumbed

Monarch of Bloodshed

(Trevino, Barragan)
(Barragan 1st solo, Trevino 2nd solo)

Spread your wings black vulture
Feast upon the suicide culture
War is my way of life
A foreigner of peace and a native of strife

1st Chorus

Monarch of Bloodshed
A crown of shrapnel wrapped around my head

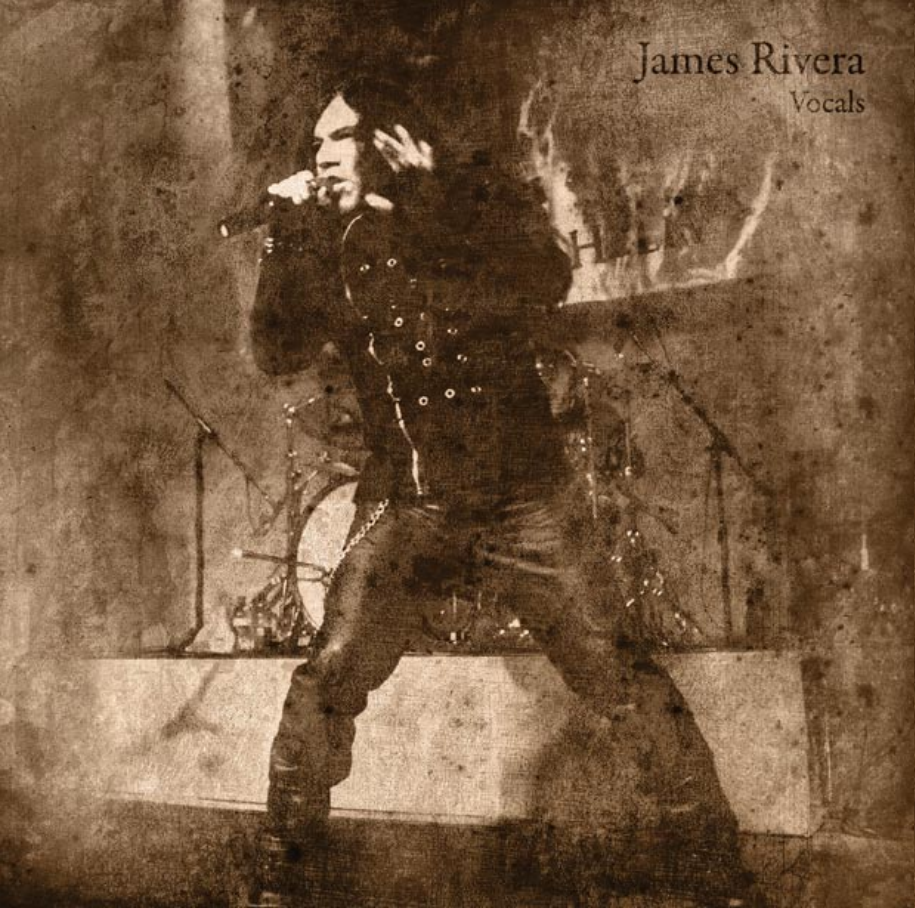

These are desperate acts
They're more than just vicious attacks
Terror is a weapon of the weak
It's the only way the world can hear me speak

2nd Chorus

Monarch of Bloodshed
A crown of shrapnel wrapped around my head
Monarch of Bloodshed
Killing zone to avenge the dead

Blood soaked sand
Contaminated holy land
Bullets to anoint
Oppression past the breaking point
Prayers to recite
Bombs wired to ignite
I choose my time to die
My soul will tear a hole up in the sky

2nd Chorus

James Rivera
Vocals

Bone Crusher

(Barragan, Rivera)
(Barragan 1st solo, Trevino 2nd solo)

Whirlpools of bedlam
Incessant rampage
Magnificent disorder
Onslaught engaged
Maelstrom of force
The system is purged
The frail are discarded
Consumed by the surge

Pre-Chorus

Resistance is futile
Once the path has been cleared
The tread of destruction
Leaves them battered and smeared

Chorus

Bone Crusher!!!! - Watch the blood flow
Bone Crusher!!!! - Who can take the blow?
Bone Crusher!!!! - How much can you take?
Bone Crusher!!!! - Until the bones break

Eruption of turmoil
In the halo of hell
Legion of carnage
Awaits the death knell
Congregation of chaos
Pulverizing in mass
Vortex of fury
Deep, dark and vast

Pre-Chorus / Chorus

Convulsions and spasms conquer the throng
Wreckage dispersed like a ravaging bomb
Dissident hordes cut through concrete and steel
Unyielding power that just can't be real

Frenzied and rabid - They recoil and strike
Regiment of unrest - Violence to incite
Tumultuous uproar - Tranquility destroyed
Cataclysmic marvel - Inhaling the void

Pre-Chorus / Chorus

Summer of Hate

(Barragan, Trevino)

Carve my name into your soul
Relinquish to me complete control
I pull the stings of the marionettes
I am the face you'll not soon forget

Into the sweltering night it spreads
The savaged bodies and disfigured heads

Chorus

I am the God of Death
The silencer of labored breath
Words of blood that desecrate
Announce the coming summer of hate
SUMMER OF HATE!!!

I'm the beast that can't be tamed
I'm the lamb to lay your blame
Speak my name it's blasphemy
Let the children come to me

Master of the dogs of war
Leader of the killing corps

Chorus

If you die for me
You die in yourself
From society
I remove myself
With this sign

It will begin
Groveling swine

Blood splattered skin
Walk with me in darkness

I will light a path for you
I'm the cruel and the heartless
These words are the venom I spew

I'm the devil and here to do the devil's business

Their screams and pleas were all ignored
Extinguished lives for the one you adored
The blood you shed has stained my hands
The lifeless lay on spoiled lands

This is the bond that cannot be severed
This is the hate that will last forever

Chorus

Dethtrap

(Barragan, Trevino, Rivera)
(Barragan solo)

Welcome to my sick philosophy
Welcome to insanity
Into my sadistic game of desperate survival
For pleasure, my amusement, twisted revival

Pre-Chorus

No one escapes my asylum
Scorched alive or sliced by the pendulum

Chorus

So many have tried
Before you that died
Clues to unravel
Inside my dethtrap

Inside my muse you will partake
Scanning your every move you make
In which room does death await in there
Once you step into the killing zone
there is no time to spare

How much can you take the lunacy
How long before you break into frenzy
Do you stand a chance in this puzzle of despair
One wrong move you meet your fate, with every turn beware

Jerry Abarca
Bass

Anger

(Barragan, Trevino)
(Barragan 1st solo, Trevino 2nd solo)

Deep inside I'm burning
A war machine that keeps on churning
Every time I look at you
My indignation must break through
Gasoline runs through my veins
I need a spark to ease the strain
A quick release of blinding light
You're everything that I dislike

I can't contain my violent rage
This hatred that I cannot gauge
The pressure builds and I lash out
I need your blood to end this drought
To look at you is pure disgust
The words you speak I'll never trust
You smother and you suffocate
Connive and manipulate

Chorus

Anger

A cesspool of hate
I clinch my fist and can't think straight

Anger

Distempered soul
My wrath is spiraling out of control

Anger

Has made me blind
The inner peace, I cannot find

My blood runs cold
My belligerent nature takes its toll

The cause of my vexation
Lies and incriminations
The object of my ire
All the shit that you conspire
Brooding in discontent
Malign and malevolent
The seeds that you have sown
The resentment that I own

All this fury is running deep
This bitterness I just can't keep Vindictive spirit unrepressed
Hostile feelings I can't suppress Cacophony of spleen and spite
My anger spills into the night
Forced to swallow this poison pill
Your actions cannot break my will

Chorus

Trinity of Heresy

(Barragan, Trevino, Rivera)
(Trevino 1st solo, Barragan 2nd solo)

In the folds of black sleep
I am and will always be
Boundless as a starless sky
There is no end for me
Body of rebellion
The light has been vanquished
Everything around you
Engulfed in my darkness

Chorus

Father of tragedies
The son of atrocities
The ghost of eternal lies
Trinity of heresy

Bringer of disease
Messiah of persecution
Harbinger of suffering
I'm the final retribution
Angel of the pit
Tempter of mankind
I've been known by many names
Not one of them divine

Chorus

I have yearned for your crown of thorns
I've caressed the face of your pain
Judgment past for the lonely and forlorn
I am seen through your eyes of disdain
My love for you was despised
Only emptiness hears my cries
I am shame, unholy entity
I am blasphemy, hate for eternity

I am the poison nectar
You eagerly consume
I am the soul collector
Festering in your womb
A mocker of what is holy
Defier of the righteous
The epitome of disgrace
The worldly God who took your place

Chorus

Alma Negra

(Barragan, Rivera)

(Barragan 1st & 3rd solos, Trevino 2nd solo)

The poison in their veins flows from my blackened heart
The life blood that one spill fulfills my darkened soul
The excitement and the thrills as they tear your world apart
In calm insanity, murder in complete control

Chorus

Alma Negra - I am the night stalker
Alma Negra - and then I am Dahmer
Alma Negra - I am the son of Sam
Alma Negra - Yes that's what I am

The voice inside their head again possessed it's time to kill
Pulsations in their brain they await for my call
The screaming and the pleas, the best part of the thrill
Time to take another out so we can watch them fall

Chorus

The ones I have chosen fulfilled all my sins
Such laughter when begging for mercy begins
That look of fear in victims eyes is what I crave
When they see that look of death that says it's time to go to your grave

I am the genius that lived in their minds
Day after day more victims you'd find
I was evil that showed in their eyes
I stood by them while they silenced your cries

With haste and ecstasy, I've taken dominance
In my control heartless killing machines
Addicted to the sight of blood a rush that's so intense
Never feeling squeamish to the smell of death obscene

Chorus

Zero One

(Barragan, Rivera)

Rage came like a storm
Atrocities, blood in the sand
Glory of chaos
Fields on fire, in zero one
